MEMORANDUM FOR: The Director of Central Intelligence

THROUGH: Deputy Director/Intelligence

SUBJECT: Biological Warfare Intelligence in Support of Research and Development Planning
(IAC-D-80)

30 Jan 54

1. The Intelligence Advisory Committee (IAC) meeting on Tuesday, 19 January 1954, considered the above subject and directed, among other things, that the draft of the proposed letter to the Assistant Secretary of Defense (R&D) be revised in the light of the discussion and circulated for the concurrence of the IAC representatives prior to dispatch.

2. Accordingly, there is attached for your approval prior to circulation for the concurrence of the IAC representatives a draft of the above mentioned letter (Tab A), revised to reflect the changes discussed at the IAC meeting as set forth in the Minutes (Tab B). This draft has received the informal concurrence of the IAC representatives.

3. If you approve the draft letter (Tab A), it is suggested that it be sent to the AD/IC for circulation to the IAC representatives for formal concurrence prior to dispatch.

Remarks:

The attached has been coordinated with the AD/IC.

This represents what the SAC consensus was at the perfunctory last week's meeting I chaired. I'd be glad to give you a further fill in.
